REACH OUT

So you have a great product or service. You need a marketing tool that's an attention-grabber. You need to get the word out quickly and easily. You need it to be affordable. You need an ebrochure.

What's an ebrochure, you ask?

You're looking at one. It's an electronic brochure created as an email attachment. Yep, it's paperless. With one click of the send button, you can blast your way into the inboxes of everyone you want to reach. It can fill the gap until your website is up and running or it can be a brilliant no-webby alternative. You can even upload it to your blog or to your fav networking sites.

How do you get an ebrochure?

That's where we come in. We'll write it, design it and deliver it ready to go. Then it's up to you and your address book.

ebrochures etc:

a boutique design company geared to small business newbies just starting out or for self-employed entrepreneurs needing a jump-start to stay in the game.

our goal:

to create marketing materials for you that look like they're really expensive, but aren't.

our services:

we can write the copy and design the whole kit 'n kaboodle, from logo to website; we can give your existing materials a little pick-me-up or a total make-over; we can create just one thing at a time. whatever.

our mission:

be speedy, keep it uncomplicated and affordable, make it look pretty. that's it.

we like recycled paper stuff

WHAT ELSE WE DO: logos • biz cards • letterhead • paper brochures • websites
